

Places to Visit In and Around Ithaca

Arts and Entertainment

Cayuga Chamber Orchestra

The Cayuga Chamber Orchestra is comprised of local professional musicians who give a number of performances throughout the season. Concerts and events are held at various locations in Ithaca and sometimes feature internationally renowned soloists.

ccoithaca.org

Community School of Music and Arts (CSMA)

CSMA is Ithaca's downtown multi-arts center. Its historic location is a vibrant hub for instruction, production, and consumption of visual and performing arts.

csma-ithaca.org

The Hangar Theatre

The Hangar Theatre produces five shows during its summer season, including full-scale musicals, comedies, dramas, and classics. Other smaller productions for families and younger audiences occur year-round. The theatre also offers workshops and programs for both children and adults.

hangartheatre.org

The Kitchen Theatre Company

The Kitchen Theatre Company produces classical and contemporary plays and musicals. Its intimate venue seats only 99 patrons. The theatre has strong ties to the Ithaca community and encourages the celebration of culture and the arts, especially in young people.

kitchentheatre.org

Outdoors

Cayuga Nature Center*

The Cayuga Nature Center offers five miles of nature trails for walking, live animals, natural history exhibits, a butterfly garden, and the Treetops Treehouse—fun for all ages.

cayuganaturecenter.org

The Cayuga Waterfront Trail

The trail is a multi-use, paved trail beginning at Ithaca's Cass Park. Trail visitors can see views of the Cayuga Lake inlet, the hills of Ithaca, and the community, and take advantage of the park's recreational space.

cayugawaterfronttrail.com

Greek Peak Mountain Resort

Greek Peak is located 18 miles from Ithaca in Cortland, New York. It is a family-oriented ski resort with 32 trails of varied difficulty. The resort is open year-round and includes Hope Lake Lodge, the Waterfalls Spa, and Cascades Indoor Waterpark. Greek Peak offers accommodations and programs for the whole family.

greekpeak.net

Taughannock Falls State Park

Taughannock Park features gorges, cliffs, and waterfalls. The main waterfall has a 215-foot drop, making it 33 feet taller than Niagara Falls. Visitors can walk the 3/4-mile trail to view the falls. The park also offers camping, picnic areas, swimming, and fishing, as well as ice-skating, sledding, and cross-country skiing in the winter.

taughannock.com

Other Parks

Other parks to visit include Cass Park, Buttermilk Falls State Park, Robert H. Treman State Park, and Stewart Park.

visitithaca.com

Science and History Centers

The History Center*

The History Center is a place to learn how the local community grew from early Native American settlements, through the establishment of Cornell University and Ithaca College, to the building of the downtown Commons, and more.

thehistorycenter.net

The Museum of the Earth*

The museum is part of the Paleontological Research Institution (PRI). Museum visitors can explore its many fossil collections and exhibits to reach a better understanding of the importance of Earth science. Cornell and the PRI work closely together to help fulfill Cornell's land-grant mission of service. The museum's collections and staff are resources for Cornell undergraduates working on independent research.

museumoftheearth.org

continued

Sagan Planet Walk

A 1:5 billion scale model (3/4 mile long) of the solar system, built in 1997 as a memorial to Ithaca resident and astronomer Carl Sagan. Begin at the Sun station in downtown Ithaca Commons, and follow the planets to Pluto at the Sciencecenter. The last stop in the exhibit, Alpha Centauri, is located at the 'Imiloa Astronomy Center at the University of Hawaii, Hilo, making this the largest exhibition in the world!

saganplanetwalk.com

The Sciencenter*

The Sciencenter is a hands-on science museum in Ithaca. Through interaction, the Sciencenter's exhibits teach children and adults about the solar system, animals, nature, music, and more. The museum features an outdoor science park and offers several programs throughout the year.

sciencenter.org

Shopping

Dewitt Mall

Located in downtown Ithaca, the Dewitt Mall features unique, locally-owned specialty shops, wellness studios, galleries, and great dining, including the famous Moosewood restaurant.

thedewittmall.com

Shop Downtown Ithaca

Explore hundreds of independent specialty shops and boutiques along with more than a dozen art galleries. The Ithaca Commons - a unique pedestrian center lined with historic architectural facades - is the centerpiece of Ithaca's engaging social and civic life. Just a short stroll away is the Dewitt Mall (see above) and Press Bay Alley, a series of micro-retail spaces that feature local shops, cafe, and ice cream.

downtownithaca.com

Ithaca Farmer's Market

The Ithaca Farmer's Market features 150 local vendors. Agricultural vendors offer locally grown and produced fruits, vegetables, meats, and dairy products. Food vendors contribute fresh baked goods, jellies, and sauces, and skilled craftspeople sell handmade items. Visit the Farmer's Market website for specific locations and hours.

ithacamarket.com

Shops at Ithaca Mall

The Shops at Ithaca Mall is located in Lansing, New York. It is an enclosed shopping mall with a range of national chain stores and a food court. Planet Fitness and Regal Cinemas are also part of The Shops at Ithaca Mall.

theshopsatithacamall.com

Triphammer Marketplace

A relaxing hometown atmosphere with over 20 shops, eateries, and services, conveniently located on several bus routes.

triphammermarketplace.com

* Member of the Discovery Trail

discoverytrail.com

Touring

Cayuga Wine Trail

The Cayuga Wine Trail includes 16 family owned and operated boutique wineries along Cayuga Lake. This trail was the first organized and is the longest running wine trail in the United States. Winery visitors can sample award-winning wines while experiencing the beauty of the Finger Lakes region. Information on events, winery details, guided tours, maps, and accommodations is available online.

cayugawinetrail.com

The Greater Ithaca Art Trail

The Art Trail is part of the larger, rich cultural landscape of Upstate New York. Fifty-three studios are open simultaneously two weekends a year and are open year-round by appointment. You'll find painters, photographers, sculptors, printmakers, ceramic artists, furniture designers, jewelers, and glass artists.

arttrail.com

Other

Events

Visit these websites for details on the wealth of local events, such as First Friday Gallery Nights, Chili Cook-off, Downtown Living Tour, Ithaca Festival, Summer Concert Series, Apple Harvest Festival, Wizarding Weekend, Oktoberfest, Winter Ice Festival, and the Ithaca Chowder Festival.

downtownithaca.com
visitithaca.com

Ithaca Youth Bureau

A public multi-service agency that provides a variety of recreation and youth development programs, including stay-and-play, after school, academic support, job and skill training, lessons/mentoring, sports, summer camps, and more.

ithacayouthbureau.org

The Tompkins County Public Library*

The public library is a place to find a world of information. At the library you may connect to special databases, search the library catalog for CDs, DVDs, videos, or your favorite author. Explore the internet or simply sit back and read. Enjoy programming for all ages, including story telling, music on Sundays, book discussion groups, and author readings.

tcpl.org

This is a partial list of places to visit in Ithaca and the surrounding area. To see a more comprehensive list of places and events visit:

fingerlakes.org
visitithaca.com